

Tuesday
4/1/2008

OKLAHOMA CITY, 2008
WOMEN in AGRICULTURE

	18th Century	19th Century	Kiamichi	Frontier Country	20th Century	Great Plains
Session A 9:30 - 10:00	Adding Your Educational Materials to the National Ag Risk Library	Adding the Internet Marketing to Your Business	Financial Planning for Small Business	Farm Succession Planning with Personal Coaching for Participating Families	Program Impact Evaluation: Is the Pain Worth the Gain	Cultivating Success - An Education Program for Sustainable Small Farmers
10:00 - 10:30 BREAK
Session B 10:30 - 11:30	Risk Management Education Grant Process	Adopting New Technology 101	Rural Women in Agriculture	Helping Women Address the Farm Transfer	Grain Marketing Made Simple (it's just not easy)	Annie's Project Panel
11:45 - 1:10 LUNCHEON & SPEAKER
Session C 1:15 - 1:45	AgPlan - A New On-line Business Planning Tool	Help for Entrepreneurs - eXtension Puts Assistance at Your Fingertips	Quicken 2008 for Farm Financial Records and New Educational Resources	Passing Indian Lands to Future Generations	Retirement and Estate Planning for Farm Women	Annie's Project Panel
Session D 2:00 - 2:30	Online Education & Women Farmers - Opportunities and Barriers	Tour eXtension's Interactive Web Resources!	Understanding Cooperative Equity	Planning for the Future of Your Farm	Stress and Stress Management	Annie's Project Panel
2:30 - 3:00 BREAK
Session E 3:00 - 3:30	Census of Agriculture Resources	Virginia Regional Market Analysis and Economic Outlook Seminars Utilizing the Internet as and Interactive Delivery System	Technology to Manage Nitrogen Fertilization	Economic Considerations Related to Alternative Agriculture Enterprises	Talk, Teach, Touch	Annie's Project - Women Marketing Grain
Session F 3:45 - 5:00	General Session Producer Panel
6:00 - 8:00 Poster Session and Networking Reception

Blue = 30 minutes Green = Panel Plum = 60 Minutes