

OKLAHOMA CITY, 2008
WOMEN in AGRICULTURE

Wednesday
4/2/2008

	18th Century	19th Century	Kiamichi	Frontier Country	20th Century	Great Plains
Session G 9:15 - 10:15	Is Marketing a Waste of Time?	Grain Marketing Decisions at Harvest	Save Your Life, a Family and Community from Foodborne Illness	What "Ag" Women Want: Organizational Tools to Manage Finances, Balance Work and Family, and Reduce Stress	State Programs Panel	State Programs Panel
10:15 - 10:45	BREAK
Session H 10:45 - 11:15	Estate and Retirement Planning for Farm Families Website	Women Owned Horse Farms; A Formula for Success	Communicating Farm Family Values: What's important and Who Cares?	Farm Transition and Estate Planning: Farm Family Evaluation and Behavioral Change	State Programs Panel	These Aren't Your Fathers Goats, A Look at the Past, Present and Future of the U.S. Meat Goat Industry
Session I 11:30 - 12:00	Small Farm Marketing	Is Corn Profitable on the Lower Eastern Shore of Maryland?	Effective Networking: Tips and Techniques	SARE-Farm Beginnings, Conservation Planning, and Risk Management	No Concurrent Session Scheduled	Indicators of Animal Welfare, Cow Comfort, and its Economic Impact
12:00	Safe Travels Home

Blue = 30 minutes	Green = Panel	Plum = 60 Minutes
-------------------	---------------	-------------------